

Job Vacancy

Development Officer

Closing date for applications – 12pm, Friday 27th May 2022

The Harris Tweed Authority (HTA) is a statutory public body, tasked in law with the privilege of protecting and promoting the unique Harris Tweed® industry, based in Stornoway in the Outer Hebrides of Scotland.

The HTA is seeking to appoint a creative and adaptable development officer to drive forward the Authority's social media, online and educational work.

Applicants who are able to demonstrate the following skills/experience are invited to apply:

- An ability to use technology to communicate and share with our global audience the heritage and contemporary story of Harris Tweed
- Strong visual design, written and presentational skills
- Project Management experience
- Exceptional communication, organisational and administration skills
- Experience of managing external consultants
- An ability to support and work closely with the HTA Office Team, where and when possible. This will include administration duties and dealing with public enquiries

Applications are invited from individuals able to meet and exceed the above criteria. Gaelic language would be an advantage and a driving license is essential.

The position is full time and a salary of £27,000pa is payable. Staff benefits include a generous pension contribution, discretionary Harris Tweed® clothing allowance, private healthcare provision.

Please contact enquiries@harristweed.org for an application form and full job description. CVs or other creative approaches may accompany a completed application form.
